1. Submit a letter of recommendation from one of your high school or undergraduate coaches/advisors that addresses your accomplishments and commitment to being an appellate or courtroom advocate. Submit this recommendation in a sealed envelope with the signature of the recommender written over the seal. Enclose your sealed recommendation with this Cheshire Schneider Advocacy Scholarship. Do not submit more than one advocacy letter of recommendation with this application.

2. Submit an advocacy essay of 500 words or less describing the reasons you feel you should receive the Cheshire Schneider Advocacy Scholarship. Discuss your participation as an advocate and commitment to the advocacy arts, any professional goals as an advocate that inspire your pursuit of a law degree, any experiences that have influenced your interest in advocacy, and any other relevant factor that you consider supportive of your qualification for this scholarship.

3. Submit this application form along with the accompanying essay in a single package to the address listed below. Do not submit your Cheshire Schneider Advocacy Scholarship Application with your Campbell Law Application. Admission materials and scholarship materials must be submitted separately.
