Westlaw Access

The Law Library provides complimentary access to Westlaw and Keycite at the public access computers. To access Westlaw, simply click on the icon labeled "Westlaw Access for" This will give you access to Keycite, the primary federal and state law, and journals on Westlaw.

Borrowing Privileges

Attorneys may borrow any materials in the library which circulate. In order for attorneys to borrow materials, they must have an Attorney Privilege Card. This card will be issued by the library assistant on duty.

The lending period for library materials is one month, and the materials may renewed once. Books can be renewed over the phone by calling 910-893-1790. Overdue fines for materials are 25 cents per day.

Document Delivery Services

Within limits proscribed by U.S. copyright laws, the library fills photocopy requests for attorneys. Requests must contain accurate and complete citations, name, billing address, and telephone number. The charge for each request is fifteen cents per page plus an additional charge of two dollars per cite. Requests may be placed by phone (910-893-1790), fax (910-893-1829), or e-mail (hurley@law.campbell.edu). Every effort is made to provide service within 24 hours.

Fax services are offered to Attorneys with a same day turn around time. The charge for faxed copies is fifty cents per page plus an additional charge of two dollars per cite. Firms will be billed for photocopies and faxes on the first of each month.

Law Library Home Page

The Law Library has a home page at <http://www.law.campbell.edu/information-resources/> that provides information about the Library, the Library's online catalog, and links to services subscribed to by the library. Most subscription based services can be used by Attorneys on the public access computers located in the Library.
