
Law Library Website

The Law Library has a home page at <http://www.law.campbell.edu/library/> that provides information about the Library, the Library's online catalog, and links to services subscribed to by the library. Most subscription based services can be used by Attorneys on the public access computers located in the Library. There is also an Alumni Services link on the main Library page. Once you click on the Alumni Services page you will find information regarding borrowing policies for members of the Bar, an online version of the Library's Location Guide, as well as, other useful information for Attorneys.

Reservation of Resource Room

The Library offers an Attorney Resource Room for visiting attorneys on the first floor of the Library. Attorneys may reserve the Attorney Resource Room for conferences, depositions, or other meetings. To reserve the Attorney Resource Room, contact Billie Hurley, Circulation Supervisor.
